

Alloy Tray Light Bracket

Our new Alloy Tray Light Bracket is easy to install, strong, robust and built for our harsh Australian road conditions. These light brackets are easily adjusted to suit the different size lights of all the major brands available on the market today. Sold as a single bracket, the options are available to add as many as you like to any of our existing Alloy Trays. The Alloy Tray Light Bracket allows you to easily mount your driving lights to the front or rear of your Alloy Tray. Just another accessory that keeps your Rhino Alloy Tray the most versatile and practical Alloy Tray available anywhere in the world.
